

Oshawa Dodgers November Newsletter

Troy May IBL Executive of the Year

On Tuesday October 24 at the Intercounty Baseball League Annual General Meeting in Cambridge, it was unanimously voted among League owners that Troy May be named the 2006 IBL Executive of the Year for his contributions to the league. This past season Troy was involved with the creation of the IBL Hall of Fame among his many other duties within the league and the Dodgers. It was also announced that the IBL Manager of the Year Award will now be named the Troy May Manager of the Year Award.

Megill Named All Canadian

The Oshawa Dodgers would like to congratulate Durham College shortstop Craig Megill on being named to the All Canadian team at the National Championships in Ottawa. Craig had an outstanding season leading the Ontario Conference in RBI's. Durham College finished fourth in the tournament after being eliminated in the semi-finals by the McGill Redmen. Also of note former Oshawa Dodger centerfielder Adam Sylvestre was also named to the All Canadian Team as an outfielder.

Volunteers

The Oshawa Dodgers need your help. We are looking for volunteers in the following capacities:

Sponsorship/Fundraising

Concessions

Game Day Promotions

Ticket Vendors

Please contact volunteers@oshawadodgers.net for more information.

Sympathies

The Oshawa Dodgers would like to extended their sympathies to the family of Barry Snoddon who was tragically killed in a motor vehicle accident on October 19, 2006. Barry was a retired school teacher and an avid Intercounty and Oshawa Dodger Fan. He and his wife Elaine attended many games and often made the trip to Toronto to see the Dodgers. Barry will be sadly missed by the entire Dodgers Organization.

Dodgers Sign Two for 2007

The Oshawa Dodgers are pleased to announce the signings of shortstop Craig Megill and 3rd basemen Phil Stone.

Megill returns to the Dodgers after a successful 2006 campaign. Most recently, Craig excelled with Durham College and was named to the All-Star team at the CIBA National Championships in Ottawa.

After a two year hiatus, Phil Stone has resigned with the Dodgers for the 2007 season. Phil played with the Dodgers as a Junior call-up in 2002 and then signed with the Dodgers in the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

Experienced players interested in playing for the Dodgers please e-mail your background information to recruits@oshawadodgers.net Look for more signings in the weeks to come as the Dodgers gear up for 2007.

Season Tickets On Sale Now

2007 season tickets are now on sale for the low cost of $40.00 for eighteen home games. Tickets will be available in mid December and make a great Christmas Gift for the baseball fan on your list. For more information please visit www.oshawadodgers.net.

Next issue.....2007 IBL Schedule;
IBL Update; 2007 player signings