Player of the Week

The Oshawa Dodgers Player of the Week for the week ending July 27th is pitcher Cam Gray. Cam pitched an outstanding complete game 10-inning masterpiece on Saturday night in Barrie leading the Dodgers to their first ever game one victory in a playoff series. Gray allowed only one run on eight hits with nine strikeouts and one walk, striking out the side in the tenth inning to win the game. In the regular season Gray was 5-4 in 56.0 innings pitched with a 2.41 ERA – 2nd in the Intercounty Baseball League.

Gray Stellar in Dodgers Win

Cam Gray pitched 10 brilliant innings as the Oshawa Dodgers scored an upset on day one of the IBL playoffs, downing the Barrie Baycats 3-1. Gray allowed one run on eight hits with nine strikeouts and one walk in a stellar complete game effort to give Oshawa the win in the series opener. This is the first time in team history that the Dodgers have won the opening game of a playoff series.

Tyler Johnstone drove in the go-ahead run with a double in the top of the 10th inning and had four hits for the Dodgers. Sean Travers added a pair of hits for Oshawa. Paul Spoljaric was also terrific for the Baycats, going nine innings. He allowed one run on seven hits with six strikeouts and two walks before Kyle Payne came on in the 10th and took the loss. Payne allowed two runs on three hits with two walks. Jared McCord's solo homer in the second inning accounted for the lone Barrie run.
