Dodgers Renew Partnership with Crohn's and Colitis Foundation

The Oshawa Dodgers are excited to announce Saturday June 23, 2007 is Crohn's and Colitis Day at Kinsmen Stadium when the Oshawa Dodgers take on the IBL defending Champion Brantford Red Sox in a 2pm Doubleheader. The Dodgers initiated a partnership with the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation in 2006 in honour of Dodgers pitcher Matt Tosoni. Matt made a tremendous comeback last season after sitting out the 2005 season undergoing three surgeries as a result of his Ulcerative Colitis. Please come out June 23rd and support this very worthwhile cause.

Two Added to Dodgers 2007 Roster

The Oshawa Dodgers have re-signed catcher Mike Welbourne and added OUA All-Star outfielder Travis Skelton for the 2007 season. To view all players the Dodgers have signed to date visit: www.oshawadodgers.net/Roster

Dodgers in the Community

The Dodgers, in an effort to reach out into the community, have formed alliances with two very important organizations. May 26th will be Cystic Fibrosis Day as the Dodgers take on the London Majors in a 2pm Doubleheader. Cystic Fibrosis is a genetic disorder affecting approximately one in every 3,600 children born in Canada with an average survival age of 37 years. There is no known cure.

On June 16th the Dodgers will host members of Community Living when they take on the Stratford Nationals in a twinbill. Community Living is an organization which provides support to people with intellectual disabilities and their families.

Please join the Oshawa Dodgers on these very important days in raising awareness about two vital groups in our community.

Season Tickets On Sale Now

2007 season tickets are now on sale for the low cost of $40.00 for eighteen home games. For more information please visit: www.oshawadodgers.net or attend one of two sales opportunities during OLMBA registration March 3rd & 24th.

Dodgers Walk for Youth Wellness

On Saturday February 17th members of the Oshawa Dodgers joined Mayor John Gray, Mills Pontiac Buick and Premier Fitness in a Walk for Youth Wellness. The charity event was a co-operative education strategy designed as an opportunity to bring knowledge and expertise to local youth to promote healthy living.
